Rocky Mount: Painter Grace Li Wang: “Radiance in Nature” at NC Wesleyan College

We are honored to open the spring season at NC Wesleyan’s Mims Gallery with the warming and joyful expressionist paintings of Grace Li Wang. Her Mims Gallery exhibition begins January 12, 2018 with a reception party with live music starting at 5 pm Thursday, January 18. The exhibition will run until February 22.

Artist Grace Li Wang declares, “I want to express the Joy, the Brightness and the Warmth of the Sun’s Radiance to Touch and Uplift All”

Grace Li Wang is an artist renowned for her ability to capture the radiance of nature in her exuberant expressionist painting where color and the touch of her paint brush infuse a sense of radiant vitality. Throughout the human history, virtually every culture has worshiped or honored the Sun. It is the artist’s wish is to remind us today again of our everlasting quest to celebrate life and protect nature with our glorious and radiant Sun.

With many exhibitions to her credit, Wang has been an exhibiting painter since her 1985 exhibit at the Gallery 91 Show, Soho, New York and most recently Shen Chang Art Gallery, Hangzhou, China in 2015. She has won numerous awards for her painting, most notably the Featured Artist Vistas Award in 2004 and 2005 at the NC Museum of Natural Sciences in Raleigh.

While always involved in her creative expressionist painting, since the 80’s she has worked corporately as a designer and marketer for Sony Ericsson, Family Health International and Black and Decker. Most recently she owned and operated the Grace Li Wang Gallery www.GraceLiWang.com in collaboration with international art dealers, galleries and clients with focus on the US, China, and Europe markets.

Grace Li Wang graduated with both a Bachelors Bachelor of Environmental Design in Visual Design and Graduate studies from NC State University, School of Design, Raleigh, NC, 1974 and in 1970 had majored in painting at the NC Governor’s School at Salem College, Winston Salem, NC.

Grace’s wonderful paintings are for sale and will brighten any collector’s home or office. We look forward to seeing you at her reception party Thursday, Jan 18.
